

Today is “Moon Day” to mark our first landing on the moon. There are many character traits an astronaut must possess. What do you think is the most important trait for an astronaut? Why did you select this trait?